Re: *In re Lexington Precision
Corp., et al.*, 08-11153(MG) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Glenn:

On October 7, 2008, Lexington Precision Corporation and its wholly owned subsidiary, Lexington Rubber Group, Inc. (together the "Debtors") filed a motion to further extend the period in which the Debtors have the exclusive right to file a chapter 11 plan and solicit the acceptances thereof (the "Exclusivity Motion"). A hearing was scheduled for the Court to consider the Exclusivity Motion on October 28, 2008 at 10:00 a.m.

On October 21, 2008, the official committee of unsecured creditors (the "Committee") filed an objection to the Debtors' Exclusivity Motion, which raised certain factual issues.

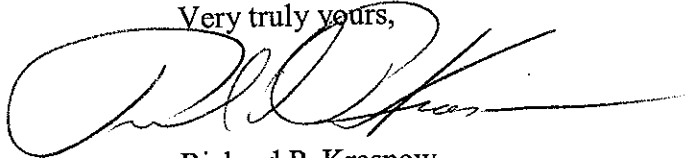

Accordingly, pursuant to Rule 9014-2 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York, the Debtors request that the October 28, 2008 hearing be an evidentiary hearing to consider factual evidence in support of the Debtors' Exclusivity Motion or, in the alternative, that the Court schedule an evidentiary hearing to consider such evidence at the Court's earliest convenience.
